The State Board of Equalization, in amending the California Retail Sales Tax Act, presented the amendment on their ruling No. 52. This amendment calls for a new form of resale certificate. In this certificate must be incorporated the purchaser's resale certificate number, signature, address and indicate the general character of his business and a description of the materials to be purchased. This description may be either itemized or given a general classification to be purchased for resale.

Please fill in the attached resale certificate form and return to us promptly.

Yours very truly,

SOS Printing
